

TRACK RULES

Owners of horses nominated for any stakes race must represent that he and all persons for whom he is acting have read and are familiar with the rules of racing and the regulations of the Wyoming Pari-Mutuel Commission and the horse racing officials and agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions, rules and regulations of the Wyoming Pari-Mutuel Commission and Wyoming Downs.

ELIMINATION TRIALS - Trials, if needed, will be raced under the same conditions as the stakes. If for any reason a tie should exist, lots shall be drawn to determine which horse shall participate in the finals. If the gates on the starting gate fail to operate or open properly during the running of the trials, the stewards may declare the race a non-race or a horse or horses non-starters and no liability shall be incurred beyond the refund of nominations and entrance fees (less management fee). The decision of the Board of Stewards in all matters shall be final and binding and entries are accepted only on the condition that those persons nominating and/or starting a horse in the trials and/or finals agree to abide by their decision. If any part of an entry is disqualified, it may disqualify all parts of the entry.

The management of Wyoming Downs reserves the right to cancel or postpone any race at any time prior to the actual running thereof, for any reason which it deems good and sufficient, without liability except for the return of nomination and entrance fees paid (less management fee). Wyoming Downs reserves the right to have its track veterinarian inspect any nominee for age at any time after the arrival of said nominee at Wyoming Downs.

All horses that have not started on an approved racetrack must be approved from the gates by the Starter and may also be required to run in schooling races or other supervised works as designated by the Stewards before being allowed to enter. ALL HORSES MUST BE TATTOOED. Wyoming Downs will not accept responsibility for horses which are not tattooed by the trials date.

An owner may nominate as many entries as desired. If one or more are withdrawn before the race, the owner must specify which ones are withdrawn when making payments. Wyoming Downs must be notified immediately of any sale of nominees.

QUARTER HORSE TIME TRIALS - Ten (10) horses shall be selected from the Trials to participate in the Finals. These horses shall be selected on the basis of their running times with the ten fastest selected. No adjustments will be made in the recorded time of the trials for headwind, tailwind, off track, etc. Should a mechanical failure occur with the electric timer on any timed trial, finalist may be selected by the Board of Stewards utilizing a method which in their determination shall be fair and equitable. If in the opinion of the Stewards, a track condition change occurs between trials (such as rain or fast drying track), the finalists may then be selected by order of finish. Should a horse be disqualified during the time trials they will receive a time one increment slower than the horse he is placed behind.

THOROUGHbred TIME TRIALS - Ten (10) or at the Management's discretion, twelve (12) horses shall be selected from Trials to participate in the Finals. These horses shall be selected by order of finish from Trials.

NOMINATIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS - While Wyoming Downs will make an effort to notify Stakes subscribers of upcoming payments and sustaining fees, it assumes no obligation or liability for such notification.

Nominations, subscriptions, entries and other communications and payment must be physically received by the Nomination Secretary or their representative at Wyoming Downs by the dates and hours specified. $50.00 will be withheld from each nomination fee for management of the Stakes Race. (not applicable to overnight stakes).

Nominations or subscriptions to any Stakes, Futurity or Derby may be refused or cancelled without liability at any time prior to the actual running of the race, except for the return of any fees received (less management fee).

Due to stall limitations, two and three year olds may not be allotted stalls unless nominated to the Stakes Program at Wyoming Downs. Nomination to the Stakes Program does not guarantee stalls, but will be duly considered.
