WYOMING BRED AWARD PROGRAM

GENERAL INFORMATION

For more information and full accounting of prior years' awards, GO TO:

parimutuel.wyo.gov

Wyoming bred horses are the only horses that qualify for points awarded by the Wyoming Breeders Program and administered by the Wyoming Pari-Mutuel Commission. Points are accumulated annually throughout the race season according to a horse's placement in each of the races it runs during that season.

Funds for the award program result from Wyoming's wagering events, including simulcast, live wagering, advanced deposit wagering and the Historic Racing industry. According to state legislation these wagering events contribute a percentage of annual earnings to Wyoming Horsemen programs.

The development of the Wyoming Bred Awards Program and its value to Wyoming breeders can be tracked by the growth in the sizes of the cumulative awards:

2013    $    46,728.65

2014    $ 509,878.16

2015    $1,202,787.58

2016    $1,002,314.12

2017    $1,723,458.62    was paid to 79 awardees

For a complete list of awardees, go to: parimutuel.wyo.gov

According to the Pari-Mutuel Commission's Brande Koltiska,

"The Wyoming Bred Breeders Award Program paid out an astonishing $1,723,458.62 in 2017 to 79 awardees that were eligible for owners, breeders and stallion owners of Accredited Wyoming Breds that ran throughout Wyoming, including 6 individuals earning triple digit numbers as high money earners through the program including top awardee the late KC Carden-Sheridan, WY ($176,404.26), Gerald Kaul-Sheridan, WY ($167,092.89), Broken Bones Cattle Company, John & Marie Whipp-Lander, WY ($147,858.93), Dan & Carol Lee- Riverton, WY ($112,202.91), Mike Lipp-Greybull, WY ($110,793.63) and Pedro Mena-Evanston, WY ($107,682.70)."

WYOMING BREEDERS PROGRAM PAYS OVER $1.7 MILLION IN AWARDS

Monday, March 5, 2018

Brande J. Koltiska, Wyoming Pari-Mutuel Commission

In a time when horse racing across the nation is suffering Wyoming jumps up and leads the way with the new technology of historic racing terminals, one of the few states in the nation to permit the public to bet on historic races using self-service terminals at Off Track Betting sites throughout the Cowboy State. The revenue from these terminals has been used as a way to restore the viability of the state's horse racing industry as well as securing some economic stability for the state. In 2017 the combined total handle for the Historic Racing terminals throughout Wyoming exceeded over $420 million in handle, that of which over $4.2 million was generated back as revenue to cities and counties in Wyoming where the terminals were located as well as over $1.6 million being supplemented as incentives for the horse breeders throughout the state.

Many changes have been seen in Wyoming racing over the past couple years including in April 2017 the Wyoming Pari-Mutuel Commission was designated as the State Breed Registrar for Wyoming as well as the payee of the breeder's award fund. There has been a rise in the number of weanlings, yearlings and broodmares accredited through the Wyoming Bred Program, proving the racing equine industry in Wyoming is resilient. The Wyoming Bred Breeders Award Program paid out an astonishing $1,723,458.62 in 2017 to 79 awardees that were eligible for owners, breeders and stallion owners of Accredited Wyoming Breds that ran throughout Wyoming, including 6 individuals earning triple digit numbers as high money earners through the program including top awardee the late KC Carden-Sheridan, WY ($176,404.26), Gerald Kaul-Sheridan, WY ($167,092.89), Broken Bones Cattle Company, John & Marie Whipp-Lander, WY ($147,858.93), Dan & Carol Lee- Riverton, WY ($112,202.91), Mike Lipp-Greybull, WY ($110,793.63) and Pedro Mena-Evanston, WY ($107,682.70). (Complete List of Awardees attached)

Additionally, the revenue from simulcasting and historic horse racing has helped boost the live race days and horsemen's purses for live horse racing events which is why the Wyoming Pari-Mutuel Commissioners approved 34 race dates to be conducted in 2018. Wyoming Downs will run 16 days total, Saturdays and Sundays, starting June 30 and running through August 19, 2018 at the Evanston, Wyoming racetrack. Wyoming Horse Racing, LLC will run 18 days total throughout the state. Energy Downs in Gillette, Wyoming will run 9 days; June 8, 9, 10, 15, 16, 17, 22, 23, 24. Sweetwater Downs in Rock Springs will run 9 days; August 24, 25, 26, 31, September 1, 2, 7, 8, 9.

With the resurrection of racing again in Wyoming the Commission strives to continue the protection of the wagering public and the health, safety and welfare of both human and equine participants with our regulatory processes, presence and integrity. After much discussion and consideration, the Wyoming Pari-Mutuel Commissioners are taking the first step in the rule change process to allow hair testing on the equine athletes.

ALL BREED RACE-BRED HORSE SALE

HELPFUL TIPS FOR BIDDERS

- Everyone is welcome to attend Wyoming Downs Horse Sales, either as a buyer or a spectator. You do not need to buy a ticket, make a reservation or pay admission.
- Sale catalogs are free for you to pick up at any time during the sale.
- You are free to inspect any of the horses being sold. Simply go to consignor's barn and ask that the horse be led out for inspection.
- Horses are available to preview 10:00 am to 5:00 pm the day of sale.
- When examining a horse, you may bring along any of your advisers: trainer and/or veterinarian. If you plan to buy, you are encouraged to secure reputable, professional assistance beforehand.
- The consignor or his representative will be at the barn to answer your questions. Do not hesitate to ask anything you like as the horse's past health record, when it was last examined by a veterinarian, whether X-rays have been taken, etc. You can rely on your advisers to assist you with these questions.
- Remember that if you are buying a yearling, you are buying an unproven horse. Your decision to buy will be based entirely on the horse's pedigree and conformation.
- If you think you may want to bid on a horse, go to the registration table and register to bid and receive a bidder number. You will need a bid number in order to bid. Bid assistants will be on hand to help make sure your bid number is seen and your bid noted with the auctioneer.
- At the time of sale, each horse is led from the barn area to a holding area near the sale area. Here buyers have one last chance to inspect the horse before bidding begins.
- The horse is then led into the area ring and the auctioneer asks for an opening bid. Those bidding do so by raising their bid number to various bid spotters located throughout the bidding area.
- At the drop of the auctioneer's hammer, the horse legally changes owners and buyer signs an Acknowledgement of Purchase.
- The High Bidder must pay for the horse in full within 30 minutes of the end of the sale.
- A buyer ordinarily has 24 hours to move the horse from the grounds. If more time is required, please speak with the sales manager to request different arrangements prior to sale.
